HOC SIGNO FORTUNA.

BALTIMORE, THURSDAY, August 1, 1822.

Increased Gain of the Wheel.

Yesterday's drawing of the Monument Lottery added no less than Two Thousand Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars to the already great gain of the wheels! The premium prize of One Thousand Dollars, was awarded to Number 10486, which is owned in Virginia, the property of three gentlemen who held the ticket jointly. No. 6915 a prize of One Hundred Dollars, is also held in the same state, and was forwarded from COHEN'S OFFICE by mail not more than ten days ago.

There are but few drawings more to complete this scheme, which has become highly favourable to adventurers. The capitals of 30,000—20,000—5000 dollars, &c. are still to be awarded. Tickets are going off rapidly.

Only Three more Drawings,

Previous to the day for awarding the rich prize of TWENTY THOUSAND DOLLARS; this brilliant independence will become the property of the fortunate holder of the Number which may be the first drawn from the wheel on the 28th of THIS MONTH. This great capital may be still remaining on hand, and Fourteen dollars may obtain it. There should be no delay in procuring chances while they are yet to be had. So favourable an opportunity for acquiring an independence, does not often occur. Halves, Quarters, and Eighths can also be had from COHEN'S OFFICE at the same rate in proportion, as the whole tickets—All tickets and shares will be warranted undrawn.

The New Scheme State Lottery.

As far as we have had an opportunity of hearing, this brilliant little Scheme is likely to become very popular; in fact, we anticipated this, from its arrangement, which gives the adventurer unusual advantages, as every prize in the lottery must be distributed before a single Blank can be drawn.—We continue the publication of the Scheme on the 4th page. Tickets are now to be had at the original rate of 8½ dollars, but the price will soon be advanced.

Tribute to Merit.—A large and respectable portion of the citizens of Norfolk, have procured and presented to the Hon. CÆSAR A. RODNEY, an elegant URN of silver plate, as a testimony of their gratitude, for services rendered their townsman, Captain JAMES BARRON. The article measures two feet six inches round, is eighteen inches high, and weighs 130 ounces. It is ornamented by a double wreath of roses and oak leaves, and surmounted by a chaplet of oak leaves, interwoven round an acorn. The following inscription is between the two leaves:

CÆSARI A. RODNEY

Jurisconsulto,

Quam Ingenio tam Scientia præclaro;
Qui, suum civem, JACOBUM BARRON

Classis Americanæ Præfectum insignem

Duro fato proditum, cum vidisset,

Indignæ rei non tulit conspectum;

Sed securus futuri, ruit in auxilium

Texit, Eripuitque

Hoc testimonium grato animo

D. D. D.

Civitas Norfolkensis.

The drawing of the Monument Lottery will be continued on Wednesday next, as usual.

The Ex-Governor of East Florida, Col. W. G. D. WORTHINGTON and family came passengers in the brig Agent, arrived at this port on Sunday last from Charleston. Col. W. left St. Augustine on the 10th instant, in the schooner Hero, and stopped in Charleston. The city of St. Augustine enjoyed good health, and there was no apprehension of sickness this season. The city of Charleston was unusually healthy. The court of Justices and Freeholders were calmly and assiduously progressing in their inquiries respecting the late conspiracy of the people of colour—The plot was fully in possession of the court, and the conspiracy completely annihilated—There would be some further executions, and most likely many involved in a less atrocious degree, would be deported to some distant place of prolonged punishment, not reaching the lives of the culprits—the court were composed of men of the first talents and respectability, who sifted the evidence, and were perhaps, more lenient to the accused than any jury they could have selected. Gaz.

BANK OF THE UNITED STATES.

Any one, says the Democratic Press, who will take the trouble to run their eye over the amount of Stock of the Bank of the United States, and where held, will be surprised how little it has fluctuated. The greatest change is in South Carolina. When the President came from that State to preside over the institution, it held many thousand shares more than is now held. The amount has diminished every year. A great deal has been written, and more has been said, of the immense amount of this stock held in foreign countries, particularly in Great Britain. It now appears that four States in the Union, hold, each of them, on an average, ten thousand shares more than all the stock held abroad. The whole amount of United States Bank stock held by Foreign nations is not one twelfth part of the Stock, and that amount is on the decline.

A ship has arrived at Philadelphia which left Londonderry on the 14th of June, but it seems she has brought no papers or verbal intelligence, where by we can learn the situation of the distressed peasantry in those parts of Ireland where the crops have been cut off, and starvation is staring them in the face. The last accounts from the suffering districts, contained in a London paper of the 6th of June, received at this port by the ship Hercules, represented that boats laden with cargoes of potatoes and other provisions, were almost hourly arriving at the sea port towns for distribution among the poor, where the dread of famine prevailed, and it would be gratifying intelligence to learn that ere this the hand of charity has completely relieved them from their deplorable situation.

Summary of European News.

By the arrival of the packet ship Nestor and the Comet and Justinia at New York, Liverpool papers to the 16th of June, and London to the 14th, have been received—we select the following items:

Peace seems decided upon in the question so long pending between Russia and Turkey, for in the address of the king of France, to the House of Peers on the 10th of June, he says:

"Since the opening of the Session I have received accounts which assure me that peace will not be disturbed in the East. It is with the highest satisfaction I announce to you this intelligence."

This annunciation seems to place that question definitely at rest.

England.—In the House of Lords the Earl of Shaftesbury, in the absence of the Earl of Liverpool, gave notice, on the 11th June, that the second reading of the Colonial Trade Bill, and the American Trade Bill, would be moved on Monday the 15th.

The King held a levee on the 12th, on which occasion Washington Irving was presented by the American Minister.

George Stephen Kemble, the celebrated actor, died on the 5th June, aged 65.

Ireland.—The distresses of this hapless kingdom have been partially mitigated, but by no means relieved. Some idea of the extreme distress to which the peasantry are reduced may be formed from the fact that in the town of Galway, a number of women are daily employed in drawing down turf from the bogs in the neighbourhood of the town on their backs. For as great a load as they are capable of carrying, they obtain but one penny halfpenny; and in order to obtain this scanty pittance to sustain life, they perform a journey of six miles, barefooted, under a burning sun.

The contributions have been liberal and extensive in most parts of England.

It reflects no great honour however, upon the meeting at Lloyd's, which was held on the 12th of June, to decide the question whether 1500 should be subscribed in aid of the distressed Irish, from the funds of the house. At twelve o'clock James Marryatt, Esq. took the chair, and two scrutineers having been appointed, the ballot commenced. At four o'clock it closed, when the numbers were declared to be—for the vote of 500*l.* to the Irish subscription, 246, against it 269—majority against voting 500*l.* 23.

Spain.—It was confidently said, that the Spanish Ambassador had received a note in answer to that of M. Zea, in which Spain invites the European powers not to acknowledge the independence of the South American Provinces.

The Spanish government had been apprised of our recognition of the Independence of her colonies. The news was brought by Chevalier Banos, the second Secretary of the Spanish Legation, who sailed from New York on the 18th April for Gibraltar.
